EDGEWOOD, Ky. - The idea behind the Molly and Katie Fund Dinner is a simple one -- help struggling pet owners pay for emergency vet costs.

The Molly and Katie Animal Assistance Fundraising Dinner was founded by the late Mabel Rita Goetz .

The dinner is through the Molly and Katie fund that SAAP (Stray Animal Adoption Program) can continue to give financial assistance to families who need it when their pet has an emergency crisis.

This year's dinner is being held on Thursday, November 4 at The Edgewood Senior Center, located at 500 Freedom Park Drive in Edgewood off the Thomas Moore Parkway.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m. with dinner being served at 6:30 p.m.

The cost is $20 per person. There will be a split the pot at 7 p.m., 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. in addition to a silent auction.

Reservations are still being accepted and can be made by calling (859)391-2972 or by e-mail to saap@fuse.net. You can also go to SAAP's web page to reserve your spot and pay through Paypal.
